

Bethlehem – Luther Heritage Scholarship Guidelines

1. To qualify, the graduating senior needs to be a member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church (BLC) for at least two years.
2. The graduating senior attends and has been active in the church.
3. The graduating senior has been accepted and will attend and ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) college or university.
4. The scholarship amount will depend on the earnings of the invested principal in the Scholarship Fund. Only earnings will be available to be awarded in the scholarship.
5. The scholarship funds available will be divided equally between eligible recipients.
6. The maximum scholarship award will be $1000.
7. The maximum award will be reviewed by the scholarship committee as the fund amount increases in future years.
8. The goal is to award scholarships to students for their 2nd through 4th years as the fund grows and as money is available. Priority for this scholarship is for 1st year students.
9. Completed applications should be returned to the Bethlehem Lutheran Church office no later than April 1.
